

WELCOME TO YOUR COLLEGE

10 THINGS TO KNOW ABOUT THE CSU COLLEGE OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SCIENCES

We are one of the most diverse colleges at CSU with eight different departments. You and your peers are future designers, nutritionists, health experts, therapists, educators, builders, innovators and change makers. Our collective passion for people is what ties us all together.

6,039

Enrolled Students

4,880 undergraduate,
1,159 graduate.

For over

125 years,

we have been teaching and researching ways to make life better.

6 internship coordinators + specialized career counseling services ready to connect you with the best opportunities in your field.

One quarter

of our student body identifies as people of color.

We work with more than

1,000

agencies and businesses that provide student internships.

90%

 of our students complete an internship and build professional experience while in college.

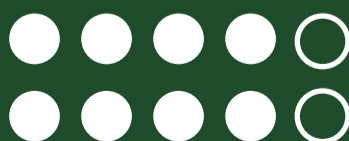

25%

of our undergraduate student body are proud first-generation college students.

32

 clubs and organizations

allow you to test new skills in real-world settings.

8 out of 10 students

find employment or continue education in graduate or professional school.

COLLEGE OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SCIENCES
COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY